

Legacy 250 – Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

"Celebrating Our Shared Past. Strengthening Our Shared Present. Building Our Shared Future."

1. What is Legacy 250?

Legacy 250 is a year-long educational, historical, and cultural initiative commemorating the 250th anniversary of the United States while celebrating more than 250 years of India–U.S. connections. It highlights our shared history, present-day partnership, and future opportunities through exhibitions, academic programs, documentaries, public events, and community engagement.

This is an entirely volunteer-driven initiative, led by individuals who are generously contributing their time, expertise, and resources to make Legacy 250 a success.

2. Why was Legacy 250 created?

Many remarkable stories connecting India and America remain little known. Legacy 250 aims to uncover, preserve, and share these stories while inspiring greater collaboration between the world's two largest democracies and ensuring the continuity of people-to-people relationships for better growth and success, which can become the foundation of people relationship for the world.

3. Is this a political initiative?

No. Legacy 250 is a nonpartisan educational, historical, and cultural initiative. It welcomes participation from people of all backgrounds, communities, and viewpoints.

4. What topics does Legacy 250 cover?

The initiative explores:

- Shared history
- Trade and commerce
- Democracy and freedom
- Science and technology
- Education and universities
- Arts and culture
- Spiritual and philosophical exchanges
- Innovation and entrepreneurship
- Indian American contributions
- The future of India–U.S. relations

- US Technological contribution

5. Who can participate?

Everyone is welcome, including:

- Universities
- Museums
- Libraries
- Schools
- Historical societies

- Community organizations
- Students
- Researchers
- Businesses
- Volunteers
- Sponsors
- Individual supporters

6. What activities are planned?

Legacy 250 includes:

- Traveling exhibitions
- Distinguished lectures
- Museum collaborations
- University seminars and conferences
- Documentary films
- Student Ambassador Program
- Public seminars
- Community celebrations
- Digital educational resources

7. Where will programs be held?

Programs are planned across the United States and India through partnerships with universities, museums, libraries, cultural institutions, corporations and community organizations.

8. How can my organization become a partner?

Organizations can host exhibitions, lectures, panel discussions, educational programs, conferences, student activities, or community events. We also welcome collaborative research, publications, and digital initiatives. Please visit our website and fill out the partnership form: https://indiauslegacy250.com/partnership

9. How can I volunteer?

Volunteers may assist with:

- Research
- Event planning
- Social media
- Photography and videography
- Public relations
- University outreach
- Community engagement
- Fundraising
- Documentation

Please visit our website and fill out the form: https://indiauslegacy250.com/partnership

10. Can students participate?

Absolutely. Students are encouraged to become Legacy 250 Student Ambassadors, researchers, volunteers, interns, and event organizers.

Please visit our website and fill out the form to become a Student Ambassador: https://indiauslegacy250.com/partnership

11. Is Legacy 250 only for Indian Americans?

No. Legacy 250 celebrates a shared journey between India and America and welcomes participation from everyone interested in history, education, culture, technological innovation, and international friendship.

12. How can businesses support Legacy 250?

Businesses can become sponsors, host events, support educational programming, provide volunteers, and help expand public awareness through corporate partnerships.

13. Which organization is behind Legacy 250?

Legacy 250 is an initiative of the Mass India Partnership (www.massindiapartnership.org), a nonprofit organization based in Boston, Massachusetts. It is a collaborative educational and cultural initiative supported by universities, museums, libraries, community organizations, businesses, and institutions across the United States and India.

Our vision is to build a broad national coalition, with at least 50 partner organizations participating in Legacy 250 to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the United States while celebrating more than 250 years of India–U.S. connections.

14. How is Legacy 250 funded?

The initiative is supported through institutional partnerships, sponsorships, grants, donations, and community support.

15 What makes Legacy 250 unique?

Rather than focusing on a single event or anniversary, Legacy 250 tells a comprehensive story spanning more than two and a half centuries—from early maritime trade and democratic ideals to today's collaboration in science, technology, education, entrepreneurship, and global leadership. It is a year-long event between July 2026 and July 2027.

16. How can I stay involved?

Visit www.IndiaUSLegacy250.com to:

- Become a partner
- Volunteer
- Sponsor the initiative
- Register for events
- Join the mailing list
- Follow upcoming programs
- Access educational resources

17. What is the vision beyond 2026?

Legacy 250 is intended to become a lasting educational movement. Our vision is to establish permanent partnerships among universities, museums, libraries, and communities that continue strengthening India–U.S. understanding and collaboration for decades to come.

Contact

Website: www.IndiaUSLegacy250.com

Email: info@IndiaUSLegacy250.com